

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in a staff position at Queer Asterisk. We strive to maintain a diverse team with a shared and vested interest in our mission.

OUR MISSION

Queer Asterisk is a Colorado 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization guided by queer & transgender leadership and rooted in community. We provide counseling services, educational trainings, and therapeutic programming centering queer and trans experiences. Queer Asterisk envisions a vibrant community that embraces authentic expression and transformation, where individuals with dynamic and intersecting identities can thrive.

OUR HISTORY

Queer Asterisk was conceived in May 2014 by Sorin Thomas, a recent graduate of Naropa University's Graduate School of Psychology. As a queer and trans counselor, Sorin hoped queer and trans clients would finally see themselves reflected in their mental health professional instead of obscured from yet another portrait of power.

The name Queer Asterisk was born from the ashes of queer, historically used as a derogatory term, and asterisk, generally used as annotations or to stand for omitted matter. Wishing to empower the LGBTQPIA communities characterized by and oftentimes disregarded for their divergence from the norm, queer was chosen to spotlight non-normative identities and the asterisk selected to hold space for all that is queer.

Queer Asterisk was nurtured by the addition of Brett Adamek, a fellow graduate of Naropa University's Graduate School of Psychology, in April 2016. A genderqueer counselor and activist, Brett aspired to bring queer and trans communities with intersecting identities together in solidarity with other marginalized communities to grow in tandem.

In May 2016, Queer Asterisk incorporated as a 501c3 non-profit organization to ensure oversight by a diverse Board of Directors and has been growing strong ever since.

OUR FUTURE

While Queer Asterisk continues to grow, we hope to generate sustainable jobs for those of you wishing to create a professional niche for yourself within our organization. We hope to support and engage you by providing fair compensation and ensuring ample opportunities for professional development.

As an organization founded on relational business practices, we want to hear your voice, bear witness to your strengths and challenges, and experience your leadership. We aim to incorporate these practices into our business structure and professional culture to maintain the integrity and ensure the longevity of our business partnership.

To apply please submit a resume, cover letter, and two professional references with your completed application to info@queerasterisk.com.

Thank you for your time and interest.
